zedIT Solutions Further Expands Distribution Channel for SAP Business One Web Integration Solutions

St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada – zedIT Solutions, Inc. (www.zedsuite.com), developer of zedSuite, Web integration solutions for SAP Business One has named Inecom as distributor for its product suite (zed E-Commerce, zed WebCRM, zed B1WebAPI, zed Customer Portal, zed B1 Query Portal) across the Australian market.

With more than 200 ERP customer installations in Australia and Southeast Asia, Inecom has achieved an enviable reputation in helping companies deploy world-class business software solutions and is represented in Australia, Singapore and India. When asked about the distributor relationship, Marketing Communications Manager, Lesley Gilchrist commented, "Since zedIT Solutions launched these significant and fully integrated Web solutions for SAP Business One, our enquiries from both within our client base and new clients have rocketed."

"Any SAP Business One customer who wishes to sell over the Web should review the zedSuite portfolio. At the very least, we recommend that every SAP Business One customer should review the customer and employee portal", added Ross Gilchrist, Inecom's Director of Professional Services.

zed is excited to expand its growing channel of distributors through another leading SAP Business One reseller. "Australia is a major market for zed, and working with the right regional partner is essential", said zed Channel Manager, Tom Costa. "We are excited about the distribution partnership with Inecom for Australia. We strongly believe that, together with Inecom, we will further establish ourselves as global leaders in Web integration solutions for SAP Business One."
